Nancy Rhyne

Dear Nancy,

I have really enjoyed being in the same classes with you. Especially dancing on Friday. We sure have a lot of fun dancing together don't we. We have pretty well got that Dip down pat. Those other dances thought are out of this world. They get crazyer every time we do them. I'm going to practice that dip some more and maybe someday I'll get good enough not to step on your toes.

It's too bad we don't have any kind of parties any more. We used to really have some dandy ones. Most of them got pretty wild, but then were the good olds of.

You known you are a very pretty girl. You have a very good personality. I ran out of ink here and had too refill. I am looking forward to see you at the freshman dance. I won't to dance with you.

It's too bad this year is almost gone. It's a lot better than grammer school. Don't you think so. Here you are able to really learn how to dance and to use it to. you have chances to go out for sports, and there are open houses afterwards.

Since we have gotten there annuals I have lost all track of our lessons in our different classes. Well I'd better stop here. It seems I am running out of paper to write on. So here to next year.

Your friend,
Freddy Hewitt

Nancy,

Well, another year of wonderful time and memories is just about over. We sure had us some good times together, haven't we? Remember all of our swimming trips this past summer. They were really a lot of fun and will just have to do the same this summer, only then, will have to take us some [illegible] in case we start to drown or something (Dick probably be more of something) I have enjoyed being in all classes (except 5th period) with you. I'm glad that all of us could be together I hope that will also be together next year in classes. All of our P.S. parties were fun. Remember the one we had [illegible] and after the ball game we [illegible] us. Boy, did I get my [illegible] I guess that you did too. [illegible] you and Jack double-dated [illegible] Ronald and D. You looked like you [illegible] help, and here we had to call your [illegible] that was pretty mean of us, don't you think so? I really didn't know what to do. Oh well, that's all in the past and there is no use saying anything else about it. We had fun on our football and basketball trips too, didn't we? Those were really the days!! I guess that for the most fun we had, here really been spent in Durham. Remember the night we were in the Washington Hotel in Durham. Boy we had fun that night. We were really living that night. Remember when those boys came over to our room and Mr. Tyler ran them off. (Dave fun anyway) I guess that it's better close now. Be good and here's wishing you all the luck, love, and happiness in the world.

Love, Caroline

Dear Nancy,

I'm mad at you, because you didn't write enough in my annual. I told you a whole page! You... bad girl!

When I saw you and Caroline this summer at the swimming pool at various times — I must admit that you caught my eye, but my last thought was that of dating you. I felt much more older than I really was. But when school started this year, I realized that I was not as old as I thought and that you were not as young as I thought you were. I don't know what your first impression of me was (maybe I should not know), but it couldn't be too good! When I would call you up on the phone (before I started dating you), you seemed to avoid talking to me. I don't know why — I hope it wasn't all me!

Anyway — I enjoyed our dates together — not a one did I regret.

I want you to know that the reason we broke up was not you. I think I explained the reason down at the Youth Center that night. I shan't put it here anyway!

Nancy, I hope that you will have a happy life in your remaining years in school and in the years after. I've enjoyed every minute in our friendship, and I hope that we shall continue to be the very best of friends.

May I someday look back in my annual and my past and say about you (proudly).

"I used to go with her and she is a very sweet and remarkable girl. I shall always remember her."

God bless you and be with you.

Jack
